

Did you know that your government health care plan may not cover you in the event of injury or illness when you travel out of province? With two plans to choose from, let the EDGE help you find the right coverage to protect you and your family.

	Travel Medical Emergency Rider on Disability Injury Policy	Travel Plus Standalone Coverage
Occupational Availability	All occupations	All occupations, except truck drivers who drive regularly outside their province of residence.
Issue Age	18-64	18-64
Coverage In Force Until	Age 75	Age 65
Underwriting at Purchase	None	None
Pre-Existing Medical Limitations at Claim Time	None to age 65. Six-month stability thereafter to age 75.	None
Number of 30-Day Trips	Unlimited	Unlimited
Coverage Per Trip	$5 million	$5 million
Standalone Plan	No – rider on Injury Disability plan only	Yes
Premium Frequency	Monthly	Annual

Contact your independent representative for more information:

Note: Both Travel plans are intended to cover unforeseen, unintended, and unexpected emergency medical events that occur while you travel out of your Province of residence. Administered by Allianz Global Assistance. This is a brief outline of some of the key features provided under the EDGE Plans. This does not outline all features, exclusions or limitations nor does it form a contract of insurance. All terms of coverage are governed by the provisions of master policy contracts issued to and administered by The Edge Benefits Inc. SEP18